

We're here both to commemorate and celebrate the end of the war in Europe which took place on May 8th 80 years ago and to honour the sacrifice and bravery both military and civilian. But we are also aware for many the war did not end that day, VJ did not come until August 1945. And for some their war did not end with peace. To all those souls, thank you.